

Help Us Clean Up

1 Million Pieces of Plastic

How to Take Part

1

Round up some ocean-loving friends to clean-up your local beach

2

Count up how many pieces of plastic you collect

3

Send us how many pieces you find, along with some photos

We'll send you and your crew some yummy thank-you yoghurt!*

Send us how many pieces you've found, your photos and a work address to Mrs Coconut:

Some Tips

Count it all up – every piece of rubbish you find counts towards the 1 Million Pieces goal, remember to send us an email with how many pieces you found so we can update our counter. We'd love a photo too!

Recycle as much as possible – some of the items you find might be recyclable, so try to put these in a separate bag to make it easier to recycle when you get home.

Be careful – there might be sharp bits of glass hiding in the rubbish you find, we don't want anyone getting hurt, please be cautious when picking stuff up.

Involve your workplace, school or community – if you have a big group interested in doing a clean-up, then we are happy to send you biodegradable bags and some gloves to help out. Just email tesh@raglancoconutyoghurt.co.nz with your details!

Thanks heaps for being awesome and lifting the vibe! May your clean-up crew live long and prosper.

*Please note: Our chilled freight provider doesn't go to homes, so the address provided needs to be a work address (can be a partner or friends if you don't have a work place). Thank-you yoghurt can only be shipped around New Zealand and some areas of Singapore & Hong Kong – if you do a clean-up somewhere we can't ship to, we'll send you a copy of our Coconut Cookbook to say thanks.
